I. Purpose

Patriot Paws Service Dogs requires directors, officers and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of the Patriot Paws Service Dogs, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

II. Reporting Responsibility

This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns internally so that Patriot Paws Service Dogs can address and correct inappropriate conduct and actions. It is the responsibility of all board members, officers, employees and volunteers to report concerns about violations of Patriot Paws Service Dogs' code of ethics or suspected violations of law or regulations that govern Patriot Paws Service Dogs' operations.

III. No Retaliation

It is contrary to the values of Patriot Paws Service Dogs for anyone to retaliate against any board member, officer, employee or volunteer who in good faith reports an ethics violation, or a suspected violation of law, such as a complaint of discrimination, or suspected fraud, or suspected violation of any regulation governing the operations of Patriot Paws Service Dogs. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

IV. Reporting Procedure

Patriot Paws Service Dogs has an open-door policy and suggests that employees share their questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with their supervisor. If you are not comfortable speaking with your supervisor or you are not satisfied with your supervisor's response, you are encouraged to speak with the Assistant Executive Director. Supervisors and managers are required to report complaints or concerns about suspected ethical and legal violations in writing to the Patriot Paws Service Dogs' Assistant Executive Director, who has the responsibility to investigate all reported complaints. Employees with concerns or complaints may also submit their concerns in writing directly to their supervisor or the Executive Director or the organization's Compliance Officer.

The Patriot Paws Service Dogs' Assistant Executive Director is responsible for ensuring that all complaints about unethical or illegal conduct are investigated and resolved. The Assistant Executive Director will advise the Executive Director of all complaints and their resolution and will report at least annually to the compliance activity relating to accounting or alleged financial improprieties.

V. Accounting and Auditing Matters

The Patriot Paws Service Dogs' Assistant Executive Director shall immediately notify the Executive Director and the Board of any concerns or complaints regarding corporate accounting practices, internal controls or auditing and work with the committee until the matter is resolved.
